Green Day Surprise Los Angeles Fans With Small Club Gig, Debut New Music (Review/Video)

August 7, 2012. Welcome to paradise. Or, rather, for a die-hard Green Day fan, the 700-person underground venue the Echoplex in Echo Park, CA. A day ago, the Bay Area veteran punk rockers announced a real venue “secret” show (unlike the botched attempt at their Burbank BBQ joint shindig) with tickets selling at 10am Monday morning. When the clock struck 10, lucky fast-fingered Green Day fans were treated to the instant gratification of an almost-intimate (in Green Day terms) 24-song set.
