August 9, 2012. No one could have guessed that the Beach Boys would make it 50 years, not even founding member, Brian Wilson.

"If they'd told me back in the '60s that we'd be doing this in 2012 I would've said, 'You're crazy,'" Wilson said in a statement. "There's a special chemistry between the five of us. We love each other, and it comes out in our music, in our harmonies."

It's also visible on their new DVD, Doin' It Again, which highlights performances from their international reunion tour and interviews from this year. The band will also release two new greatest hits collections (Greatest Hits and Greatest Hits: 50 Big Ones) on October 9, as well as remastered 12 studio albums on September 25.
