As Folk and Americana continue to take the world of popular music by storm with giants like The Avett Brothers and Ray LaMontagne, all roads lead to David LaFleur. David LaFleur, in his latest release Them Bones..., is an authentic testament of folk music at its best with thirteen original and traditional song tracks.

LaFleur, the quintessential master of the Dobro resonator guitar, artfully unwinds ballads with gusto in songs "Rovin' Gambler," "Double Down or Fold."
