Tuesday, January 21, 2014 West Palm Beach. Hairography comes to South Florida Fair concerts opening night with Brooke Eden support and Craig Morgan SFF headliner. On an unusually cold night in Palm Beach County brought on by the polar vortex, Eden's luminous locks worked like a charm to warm up Brooke's face and her fans!

The country artists drew a packed house standing room only. Eden swaggered her versatility playing a mix of popular covers Adele, Patsy Cline, Jason Aldean. Brooke can belt out the brassy balads on songs like "You Took Your Picture Down" and classic country trained yodeling as pristine as it comes!

Craig Morgan opened the show strong with offerings of his most recognizable hits "What I Love About Sundays." Morgan asked the audience if it was okay for him to perform a few new songs and audience reaction was "bring it on!" Snuggling lovers on the chilly Florida evening wasted no time hitting the floor for cozy slow dancing to "Almost Home" and "Wake Up Loving You." Full set list for both shows can be seen below
