Thursday, April 28, 2011. "Don't let your mind keep you from having a good time!" says Jason Mraz as he mesmerizes West Palm Beach with his guitar finesse and unparalleled smooth, sultry vocals under the stars. Pop-jazz artist Jason Mraz headlined the second night of SunFest on the Bank of America Stage.

Opening songs included "A Way To Remember Me," "Make It Mine" and "Coyotes." Mraz, an accomplished guitarist, played an acoustic and was supported by full brass section to keep the hot jazz flowing. Highlights of the show included Jason performing "Lucky," a song he recorded with Colbie Caillat, filling in for Colbie's vocals seamlessly! Another audience favorite was "Mr. Curiosity."

Encore of "I'm Yours" Jason playfully invited the audience to echo the jazzy vocal sounds blending into Bob Marley classic "Three Little Birds" to end a spectacular musical evening! Jason's next stop is Memphis at the Beale St Music Festival followed by appearance at New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival.

Just Announced! Jason Mraz will headline at Milwaukee Summerfest July 2! Click HERE for tickets on Ticketmaster
