July 30, 2011 West Palm Beach. Rumors that were swirling about pop / hip-hop band Gym Class Heroes' hiatus were officially cleared up in West Palm Beach at Vans Warped Tour by guitarist Disashi Lumumba-Kasongo. "I know a lot of fans worried that our band broke up but we never broke up, we've just been working really hard on the album."

Disashi met with OFC in between sets to talk about the band's upcoming album PAPER CUT CHRONICLES 2 and Gym Class Heroes latest hit "Stereo Hearts" feat. Adam Levine.

Disashi describes in the interview what the band has been up to, the creative process behind GCH mega hits like "Cupids Chokehold," the Warped Tour experience, collabs and favorite gig destinations. Gym Class Heroes is very excited about their follow up album to PAPER CUT CHRONICLES and plans for touring! Check out the video with audio from the interview and photo montage from the Warped Tour shoot.
